QUALIFICATION PATHWAYS

The Certificate III in Hospitality is the lead up to Certificate IV in Hospitality and the Diploma of Hospitality.

Candidates, who complete units of competency from within these qualifications can, subject to conditions at the time of applying, seek credit against Hospitality courses at many of our leading universities.

Please speak with our Learning & Development Manager if you are interested in pursuing this option at the completion of your course.

COURSE CONTENT

For this qualification you are required to complete eight (8) core units of competency and eight (8) elective units of competency, making a total of 16 units of competency.

You must choose six (6) of the eight (8) electives from either Specialisation Group A - Food and Beverage, Specialisation Group B - Accommodation Services, or Specialisation Group C - Gaming. The remaining units may be selected from the general elective units as set out in the qualification package or any endorsed Training Package. In all cases, selection of electives must be guided by job outcomes sought, local industry requirements and the characteristics of this qualification.

A maximum of one (1) language other than English unit may be counted as an elective within this qualification.

We will be happy to sit and discuss these options with you prior to you enrolling in your course.
